Introit "We Are Marching in the Light of God"

Answering God's Call to Worship

One: Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you!

All: For darkness shall cover the earth, but the Lord will arise upon us, and God's glory will appear over us.

One: Lift up your eyes and look around. You shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice!

All: The Lord will be our everlasting light, and our God will be our glory!

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

From "A Prayer for Epiphany"
by Walter Brueggemann

We are still people in the dark,
and the darkness looms large around us,
beset as we are by fear,
anxiety,
brutality,
violence,
loss –
a dozen alienations that we cannot manage.

We are – we could be – people of your light.
So we pray for the light of your glorious presence as we wait for your appearing;
we pray for the light of your wondrous grace
as we exhaust our coping capacity;
we pray for your gift of newness that will override our weariness;
we pray that we may see and know and hear and trust in your good rule.
